What a Fire Policy Covers.

Insurance Reporter.

Fire insurance policies do not include in their indemnity among other things, the following: "Fences and other fixtures and plate glass doors and windows when the plates are of the dimensions of three feet or more."

It is important that this fact be mentioned in the wording of the policy, if such articles are to be included in the policy. Careless, ignorant or unsophisticated brokers and agents, very frequently make mistakes in this respect.

The following articles are also not included in the security of a fire insurance policy, unless mentioned, viz., jewelry, plate, watches, musical instruments, ornaments, medals, curiosities, patterns, printed books, printed music, engravings, printings, picture frames, sculpture, casts and models, money or bullion, bills, notes, accounts, deeds, evidences of debt, or securities. These should always be specified.

If a building falls no insurance will attach, or cover its loss, unless it is caused by fire.

Stolen property is not to be paid for by the insurance company.

Losses from explosions are not to be paid, unless fire ensues, and then only the fire loss is to be settled for.

Property standing on leased ground must be so represented to the company and expressed in the policy.

Goods on storage must be insured as such.

The assured, in case of fire, must invariably do his best to save it, and carelessness in this respect will vitiate his claim. In no instance shall he abandon his premises to firemen or thieves.

Where a party has a reliable and intelligent representative, agent or broker, whose business it is to study these points, and consult his own and the assured's interest by so doing, it is sometimes safer than to risk it than by attending to the insurance himself.

She Visits a Printing Office.

She came into the office, smiling and beautiful. George and she were engaged, and George had a case. He had a galley of solid nonpareil on his frame, which he was about to lock up and prove. George, blushing like a girl, shook her hand and called her his darling. She eyed the galley and smiled sweeter than before.

"Doddy, dear," she said, still eyeing the galley of nonpareil, "are them the things you print with?"

"Yes, darling," said Doddy feelingly.

She swept her taper fingers over the matter, squabbling the entire galley.

"Bless you, my darling!" Said George, chokingly, the sweat pouring down his face.

She looked up at him and said:

"Why, Doddy dear, it's all in little pieces, ain't it?"

"Yes, love," said George, gently taking her by the hand and leading her toward the door. "Good bye, darling!" He said.

"Bye-bye, Doddy; be sure you come to-night."

"Dear me," she soliloquized, "how George loves me! He nearly sobbed when I touched those funny little bits of thingummies."

George moodily, "I wish all women were in—Heaven.

A school girl at Bellfontaine, Ohio, offended her boy lover, and he refused to speak to her. She passed a note to him asking forgiveness, but he refused. She wrote to him again, saying that she would kill herself if he did not make up, and he replied that he would be glad to go to her funeral. She then began her suicidal efforts by drinking a bottle of black ink, which only made her sick. A bottle of red ink had no deadlier effect. Finally, she cut her throat with a pocket knife, but took it coolly, though she made a deep and dangerous gash.

A Chicago thief shaved off his moustache after robbing a lady in the street and by that means made it impossible for her to identify him when he was arrested; but he could not long resist the desire to look his best, and three months later, when the new moustache had grown like the old one, she recognized him in a crowd, and he has been convicted.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Newspapers and ministers throughout the country are making a good deal of fuss because one Loomis has been detected in preaching some one else's sermons. Columns have been written about it, and tears have been shed by the barrel. Loomis made tearful appeals to his congregations and wrote letters to the man he stole from, saying he admired his style and took him as a model but did not plagiarize. The man says it is too thin, and wants him to publish a lot of his sermons so people can judge. For our part the crime seems a very small one. There is no reason why a sermon should be entirely original any more than a newspaper. The best papers use matter from their contempararies. The only difference would be that all decent newspapers give credit, which would be a little awkward in a sermon. We have often listened to ministers who could have borrowed with great advantage to their sermons, as well as their hearers.

A GAZETTE reporter called yesterday on Mrs. Oaks, widow of the late S. M. Oaks, and found her suffering terribly from the loss of her husband. She says she has met with very few expressions of sympathy from the ladies of Reno. They have not offered her any kindnesses nor even called upon her. Mrs. Oaks was deprived of her husband by one of the most dreadful blunders that has ever happened in this country, one that brought out expressions of regret from every part of the Union, and it would reflect credit on her neighbors if they manifested a little interest in her welfare. We feel as if it was only necessary to mention such a matter to get a ready response.

The charge of criminal libel, brought against Deacon Richard Smith of the Cincinnati Gazette, has been dismissed, on the ground that a criminal charge connot lie against a corporation, and that the Gazette is published by a corporation, the Cincinnati Gazette Company.

The decision does not, however, how that as newspaper cannot lie against a corporation. It simply applies the well-established maxim that corporations have no souls. Having no souls, of course they can commit no sin.

The Winnemucca Silver State says that Sherman is running the mints in his own interests, and consequently keeps thoes at New Orleans and Philadelphia running and the one at Carson closed. It seems to us that if that is true, Mr. Sherman's true policy would be to run the Carson mint under a full head also, regardless of the interests of the Government. Of course as he is a Republican he has dark and deep designs, and only evil motives in everything.

The total eclipse of the sun to-morrow will be the last to occur this century, visible in the United States. The eclipse will commence to-morrow at about 2:45 P. M., and the totality about 4 P. M. Reno is off the path of totality, which runs from Fresno, Cal., through the southern border of White Pine county, Nevada. Should the sky be clear to-morrow, the spectacle will be most interesting. The sun will set partially eclipsed.

D. Banks McKenzie is coming back to Nevada, according to the Tribune.

Mail Carrier Frozen.
Mammoth City Herald.

The pony rider, Billy Haines, familiarly known as "Cleverly," was badly frozen on his last trip from Bodie to this place. Haines left King's ranch as usual on Friday. Being caught in a storm, he pressed forward until when within about five miles from Deadman's Station, his animal gave out. He then built a fire and camped for two days and nights, when, being unable to obtain any more wood, he made a desperate effort to reach Deadman's. As soon as the storm abated, parties started out in search of him. He was found within a half mile, in a pitiable condition. His feet and legs were frozen nearly to his knees, and his hands and arms to the elbows. He was floundering about almost senseless, having given up hope before help arrived. He was taken into the station, and we are informed will be brought to town this evening.

After the recent floods in the Tiber at Rome, an undated number of fish were caught in the river, and were devoured by the famished poor of the city at a cost of two cents per pound. The floods in the Tiber always yield such a bonanza to the poor.

The Mountain Review reports Honey Lake frozen over.

THE NORTH END.

Getting Ready for the Next Grand Boom.

From the Gold Hill News.

The advancement of the north branch of the Sutro tunnel toward the bonanza mines and the rich ore developments of the Ophir, Union, Sierra Nevada and other mines of the new bonanza group at the north end of the Comstock, is assuming more and greater importance as the work progresses. It is pushing steadily ahead and will soon be passing through the old bonanza ground of the Consolidated Virginia and California to the new bonanzas beyond. The direction it takes carries it sufficiently to the east to anticipate and intersect the most easterly workings of those mines. It will, in fact, pass directly through the heart of the Golden Gate ground, which adjoins the California, Mexican, Ophir and Union on the east, and must of necessity share the fortunes of those mines. At that depth below the surface it ought to develop good paying ore, and perhaps a veritable bonanza; but whether it does or not, the fact that the bullion producing material does exist at no great distance deeper is already fully demonstrated in the valuable developments made and being made in Sierra Nevada and Union, and which evidently extend into Golden Gate. The tunnel will give efficient drainage to all these mines, and also form a new base for deeper workings down among the hidden treasures. Its progress is becoming a matter of rapidly increasing importance to all interested in the mines and stocks of the north end.

Loading Cars by Water.

An exchange says: "The manager of the Burlington & Lamoille railroad, in Vermont, has an ingenious method of conveying cord wood a distance of two miles, and landing it on the cars. He has erected a small flume from a point near the timber leading to the station. A stream of water from a brook is turned into the flume, and the wood floats down very rapidly, and at the terminus is shot on to the cars, while the water falling short flows away into the river. Thirty cords of wood are placed on the cars in this manner every day."

John Wesley's chapel in Finsbury square, London, built by him in 1777, was burnt down on Dec. 7. It was regarded by "the connection" in all parts of the world almost as a shrine, and visited by hundreds from Australia and the United States.

The Nellie Boyd Troupe.

The Nellie Boyd Dramatic Company will perform in Reno three nights next week, commencing Tuesday evening with "Fanchon, the Cricket." Nellie Boyd is well known as a protean actress, who can perform creditably a great variety of parts. She is also a very graceful dancer. In "Fanchon," she always makes a hit, and her acting in this play has been favorably compared to Maggie Mitchell's. The troupe has been performing for some weeks in the eastern part of the State, where the papers united in commending them for excellent acting.

Chance for a Good Loan.

The Journal says that Truckee Lodge, No. 14, I. O. O. F. of Reno, wants to negotiate a loan of $25,000 on its fine building and property, the loan to run for ten years at 10 per cent. per annum, and the loan not to be changed during its life; $2,000 of the principal to be paid yearly, interest payable semi-annually and the property fully covered by insurance. The building and lot owned by the Lodge are valuable property, yearly increasing in value, and the security is thus of the very best class.

News From Pyramid.

The Jones & Kinkead shaft is now open to the 400 foot level and the men are sinking in new ground. A crosscut will soon be started to cut the vein. Work in the tunnel has been temporarily suspended. Thirteen men are at work in the mine. The machinery runs smoothly. The Crown Prince has two men running the drift. A new mine still beyond the Crown Prince is being opened by a tunnel which is now in 60 feet.

Killed By The Cars

As the west bound train No 6. was yesterday passing through a snow shed near Cold Stream, a brakeman named William Hackett was knocked from the cars by a beam in the shed. He fell beneath the wheels, crushing an arm and both legs. He was taken to Truckee, and well cared for, but he died in a few hours.

JOTTINGS.

— Varian's children are better.

— There is nothing new in the Justice's Court.

— The County Commissioners meet again on Monday.

— Little Edna Bragg died at Carson at noon to-day.

— Last night of the week of prayer in the Methodist church.

— The V. & T. railroad employees were paid off yesterday.

—Almost all the swallow-tail coats were consumed in the March fire.

— Remember the Reform Club entertainment and dance this evening.

—"The tiger" appears to be getting too large game for the boys to hunt at night.

— How the family man enjoys turning out to make fires on these cold mornings!

—C. S. Varian has been renominated to the Senate as U. S. District Attorney for Nevada.

— Ah Moe was sent to Carson this noon. He was distinguished in the jail for proficiency at whist.

—The west bound freight trains are lying here, waiting for the road to be cleared over the mountains.

— A good price will be paid at this office for a full grown grizzley bear, delivered alive and in good condition.

— The Seventh Day Adventists of Reno hold services in the Congregational Church every Saturday morning.

— All the lavender ties in town had been sold out this morning. The boys are going to dress for that Leap Year party.

— If you don't see the eclipse to-morrow you will have to wait twenty years before you'll have another chance.

It will be hard to fix the minds of the Sabbath school children on their catechism to-morrow, when the eclipse comes on.

—It is said that a great deal of goat's meat is sold under the name of mutton, and that the flesh of goats is better than that of sheep.

— The Golden Fleece G. & S. mining company has levied an assessment of 1¼ cent per share, delinquent Feb. 9; day of sale, March 10.

— There have been no deer in market for some weeks, and grizzley bear meat continues scarce. What is the matter with all the hunters?

— The large fine building going up on Virginia street, north of the railroad, in the rear of Deemers' store, will be used as a wagon shop by J. Bradley.

— As the County Clerk has not issued any marriage licenses so far this year, it appears that the ladies are not taking advantage of the privileges of leap year.

— He came in pretty late last night though very quietly, but when he got into bed with his boots on, his wife knew there was something wrong, and talked to him.

—A very heavy land slide occurred last night just east of Blue Canyon, which swept away 300 feet of snow shed and will obstruct the track until sometime to-morrow.

—This is what makes the small boy kick against the order of things—just enough snow to spoil the skating but not enough to make good coasting or sleighing.

— When the recording angel, at this time of the year, sees a citizen sprinkling ashes upon the sidewalk, depend upon it, he makes a note of the fact, to that citizen's credit.

—D. B. Merry is in charge of the Steamboat ditch. Ten working days with the present force will finish it. It will end within three quarters of a mile of Steamboat.

— In his answer to the complaint of the plaintiff, in the case of Jane Lake vs. M. C. Lake, the defendant states that his income is only $6,000 a year, and that he is worth only $100,000.

— Negotiations between the proprietors and the agent of the creditors of the "Farmers Co-operative" store are still pending, with a prospect that the concern will resume business.

— Certain sounds are easily caught by the ear, and are audible at considerable distances. It is suggested that, even on stormy evenings, a little thorn caution at the front gate or in the porch is highly desirable.

— When the storm cleared away this morning, there appeared a magnificent panorama of moving clouds, all around the horizon with themountains, half in sunshine, half in shadow, while overhead the sky looked never so blue and bright.

— There are several little yellow dogs about Reno, not to speak of a certain little black cur, that have a vicious habit of barking at intervals through the night. The best cure for them is a division of the spinal cord, behind the ears.

— The Carson Tribune says that a girl in Reno is so modest that she refused to let a copy of Dr. Smith's eye and ear phamphlet remain in her bedroom over night. Another paper asserts that a modest young lady of Carson objected to the presence of a Christian Observer in her dressing room.

Overland Passengers.

The following through-bound first-class passengers will pass through Reno to-morrow evening on the Pacific Express, leaving at 8:50 P. M:

Barclay and wife, Elgin, Illinois; A. Knapp, Ione, California; J. M. Showerman, Buffalo; J. W. Warner, Rochester, New York; Hon. J. J. Gasper, Secretary of Arizona, Tucson; W. E. Duncan, St. Helena, California.

A Chinaman's Letters.

A Washoe correspondent encloses the following exact copies of two letters written in English by a Chinaman. They are interesting, as exhibiting the peculiar errors which a Chinaman makes in dealing with the English language.

The True-Billed in Court.

Ah Moe was called to plead in the District Court this morning. When the Judge asked him if he were guilty or not guilty, Ah Moe's face assumed a resigned expression, as he answered "me take him." He meant that he was guilty and would receive sentence. He was sentenced to a term of two years in the state prison.

An attorney remarked to-day that Ah Moe is the most honest thief he ever saw. The prisoner broke into T. Barnett's house and stole some blankets. He has since explained that he (Ah Moe) was very cold, and that Barnett had plenty of blankets, so he took a few. When he stood up in the court room this morning and beamed upon the Judge, the spectators all felt that they had never before realized the full meaning of that line of Bret Harte's about the "smile that was child-like and bland."

Pasquale Moresi this afternoon pleaded not guilty to the charge of "assault with intent to kill," and his trial was set for Feb. 1.

Jos. Wyman and Jos. King were called upon to plead, when their counsel interposed a demurrer to the indictment, based upon various technical grounds. The legal points involved were being argued when the GAZETTE went to press.

District Court—King S. D.

The trial of the case of Jane Lake vs. M. C. Lake was resumed this morning. The plaintiff was sworn and submitted evidence. The testimony of other witnesses was taken.

In the matter of Sisson, Wallace & Co. vs. Estate of W. E. Bidleman—Ordered that the admx. file her account within 30 days.

San Jose Fruit Packing Co. vs. Wm. Stamsfield—Demurrer Sustained and action dismissed.

C. A. Bragg & Co. vs. M. C. Lake et al.-ordered that the complaint stand as amended; defendant allowed 5 days to answer.

Gross Cruelty.

It is time that the brutal practise of "canning" dogs was stopped. Another poor dog was this morning made the sport of wanton boys who watched with delight his frenzied but hopeless race with a tin can that was firmly fixed to his tail. If "canning" is not soon stopped, the boys will proceed to fasten cleft sticks on the tails of helpless canines, to rub turpentine on them and indulge in other similar cruelties.

All the same, there are a few yelping curs in town that would be much better canned and hermetically sealed than in their owners' yards, making night hideous with their howling.

Personals.

Miss Mahoney is still dangerously ill.

R. H. Lindsay, a leading lawyer of Nevada, was in the District Court this morning.

Jonas Seeley is in town to-day, on his way to Colorado, where he will practise law.

The Word "Sozodont."

Which has already become a household word, is derived from the Greek, and is composed of two words, Soze and Odontes. "Soze" translated, means to preserve, and "Odontes" the teeth—"SOZODONT" a preserver of the teeth. And it is true to its name. It beautifies and preserves the teeth, hardens and invigorates the gums, and corrects all impurities of the breath. The odor of this pure preparation is so delightful that it is a luxury to apply it. It is as harmless as water. Sold by druggists and perfumers.

Santa Claus Items.

Isaac Barnett has most flourishingly prepared for the coming Holidays. Profusions of articles can be seen at his store for children, misses, ladies, brides and grooms. The assortment of dress goods is magnificent, an immense stock of twenty and twenty-five cent goods, dazzling thirty seven and fifty cent goods. Cashmeres of all colors, and very cheap black and colored silks. For all these dress goods you can find trimmings, like plain satins, striped satin, striped velvet and satin, brocaded velvet, plain silk velvet in all colors and shades. Fringes and lace.

The fancy goods department surpasses anything ever brought to Reno. A person's heart laughs to see the lovely ties, scarfs, bows, silk handkerchiefs, linen handkerchiefs with colored borders. Gloves you can get with from three to eight buttons and all colors and shades, and hundreds of other things too numerous to mention.

For house furnishing presents, you can get blankets, spreads, tablecloths, napkins and towels in abundance, at all prices. Don't fail to go to this old and reliable firm, if you want goods of the latest styles and cheapest prices. It is Isaac Barnett, Barnett's Block. Wall paper, oilcloth and carpet, a specialty.

We Challenge The World.

When we say we believe, we have evidence to prove that Shiloh's Consumption Cure is decidedly the best Lung Medicine made, in as much as it will cure a common or Chronic Cough in one-half the time and relieve Asthma, Bronchitis, whooping cough, croup, and show more cases of consumption cured than all others. It will cure where they fail, it is pleasant to take, harmless to the youngest child, and we guarantee what we say. Price, 10 cts. 50 cts. and $1 00. If your Lungs are sore, chest or back lame use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by Osburn & Shoemaker, Druggists, Reno, Nevada. nov 1 sat tu thu

Attention!

The greatest wonder yet discovered in medicine is Mrs. S. Howe's Celebrated, Neuralgia and Toothache cures. Would you rather suffer the pain of having a tooth drawn than buy a bottle of Mrs. Dr. Howe's toothache medicine, that will stop the pain and save the tooth. Mothers should not be without it for their infants. A few drops in a little warm water to swab a teething baby's mouth will instantly relieve the little sufferer. The medicine does not cauterise and is very pleasant. Sold by all druggists jan6

JEWELRY
$75.00 worth for $15.00,
—(AND)—
Solid Abyssinian Gold Watch
FREE! FREE!! FREE!!!

The above offer is genuine, although at first sight you would consider it impossible. We will explain: Since we first established our business here, March 1st, 1878, we have paid particular attention to the buying of Bankrupt Stocks of Jewelry and Watches which we purchase at as low as one-tenth their value, and in no instance have we paid over one-sixth the manufacturers' price. Since starting we have always been able to dispose of these goods in Chicago and through our regular customers throughout the country at nearly regular prices, as fast as we could procure them, but owing to the large number of failures among the heaviest dealers and manufacturers throughout this and other countries during the months of June, July and August (the time when the jewelry business is stagnant), we have now on hand an immense stock of the most desirable goods we have ever handled, and which we have bought at lower prices than ever before. In order to dispose of this entire stock in the most speedy manner possible, and make room for new ones which we shall continue to buy, we have hit upon the following novel plan:

We propose to give you a list of the most desirable of these goods, giving opposite each article its regular retail value, and sell to you at the rate of Five Dollars' worth for $1. For instance, on receipt of 50 cts. we will send you, postpaid, any article to the value of $2 50; on receipt of $1, articles to the value of $5, and so on throughout the entire list. Below we give a list of the most valuable of these goods.

Read What the Chicago Press Say of Us, And Send in Your Orders

The Sentinel of Chicago, Sept. 9, says: "We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of the Inventors' Agency, No. 116 E. Washington street, Chicago. The Chicago Express, Sept. 3, says: "The attention of readers is called to the advertisement of 'The Inventors' Agency,' office and rooms located at 116 Washington St., Chicago. From personal inquiry and on the recommendation of the city press, we think our friends can do no better when wanting goods in that line. Give them a trial."

The American Stockman, Sept. 11, says: "We believe this institution perfectly sound and reponsible, and consequently persons need have no hesitation about sending for what they desire."

As to our responsibility we also refer you to the following: Ernst Blomgren Bros., 163 & 165 So. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.; Miller, Wagner & Umbdenstock, 313 Sou'h Clark St., Chicago.
